Art.10.1 The general meeting will be convened by the board of directors whenever necessary.

Art.10.2. The Board of Directors is required to convene the general meeting of shareholders („GMS”) as soon as possible, at the request of the shareholders representing individually or together at least 5% of the share capital, if such request contains provisions that fall within the scope of its duties. In this case, the GMS will be convened within 30 days and will be held within 60 days from the date of registration of the aforementioned request with the Company.

Art.10.3. The term of the meeting may not be less than 30 days from the publication of the convening notice in the Official Gazette of Romania, Part IV.

Art.10.4. The convening notice will be published in the Official Gazette of Romania, Part IV, and in one widespread newspaper published in the locality where the company's registered office is located or in the nearest locality.

Art.10.5. The convening notice, as well as all materials related to the agenda, are also made public on the Company's website, under Investors, General Meeting of Shareholders section.

Art.10.6. The convening notice will contain the place and date of the meeting, as well as the agenda, expressly specifying all the matters to be debated during the meeting and any other elements requested by the law (including those provided by the laws and regulations applicable to the capital market).

Art.10.7. If the designation of members of the Board of Directors is on the agenda, the convening notice will specify that the list containing information regarding the name, domicile and professional qualification of the persons proposed for the position of director is available for the shareholders and may be consulted and supplemented by them.

Art.10.8. When the agenda contains proposals for the amendment of the articles of association, the convening notice must contain the full wording of such proposals.

Art.10.9. The general meeting of shareholders will be held at the company's registered office or at any other location in the country or abroad, as indicated in the convening notice.

Art.10.10. The general meeting of shareholders may also take place by correspondence, as well as by any electronic means, including but not limited to, teleconferences and videoconferences.

Art.10.11. The convening notice for the first general meeting may set the date and time for the second general meeting, to be held in case the necessary quorum is not met at the first general meeting of shareholders. The second general meeting of shareholders may not be held on the day set for the first general meeting of shareholders. The term provided in art. 10.3 does not apply to the second or subsequent convocation of the general meeting determined by the failure to achieve the quorum required for the first convened meeting, provided that the legal provisions have been complied with at the first convocation, no new item has been added to the agenda compared to the first convening notice and at least 10 days between the final convocation and the date of the general meeting have elapsed.

Art.11.6. The general meeting of shareholders is chaired by the President of the company's Board of Directors. In the absence of the President of the Board of Directors, the meeting will be opened and chaired by a member of the board of directors appointed for this purpose by the President of the Board of Directors.

Art.11.7. The President of the general meeting of shareholders may appoint from among the employees of the company one or more technical secretaries who will have the following duties: (i) to draw up the minutes regarding the quorum and fulfil all legal and statutory formalities required for properly holding such general meeting of shareholders; (ii) to participate in all activities carried out by the secretaries of the meeting.

Art.11.8. The general meeting of shareholders appoints from among the shareholders attending the meeting or their representatives, one to three secretaries who will check the shareholders' attendance list, the share capital represented by each shareholder, the minutes drawn up by the technical secretaries and the fulfilment of all the formalities required by law and by the articles of association for holding the general meeting of shareholders, will draw up the minutes of the meeting and, if applicable, will distribute and centralise the ballot papers and count the votes, after which the president of the general meeting of shareholders will declare the meeting legally and statutorily convened and will open the deliberations on the items included on the agenda.

Art.11.9. The secretary/secretaries of the general meeting of shareholders will draw up the minutes of the meeting, which are signed by the President of the Board of Directors or by the person chairing the general meeting of shareholders, as well as by the secretary of the general meeting of shareholders.

Art.11.10. The minutes ascertain the fulfilment of the convocation formalities, the date and place of the general meeting of shareholders, the shareholders who attend the meeting in person or by proxy, the number of shares held by the shareholders who attend the meeting in person or by proxy, the summary of deliberations and the adopted resolutions and, at the request of shareholders, the shareholders' statements given during the meeting. All documents concerning the convocation of the general meeting of shareholders and the shareholders' attendance list will be attached to the minutes.

Art.11.11. The minutes signed by the president and the secretary or secretaries of the general meeting of shareholders will be recorded in the register of meetings and deliberations of the general meetings.

CHAPTER XII. PARTICIPATION AT THE GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Art.12.1. Shareholders' participation to the general meeting of the shareholders is made in person or by representative according to the legal provisions. Shareholders may also be represented by other persons than shareholders. The special powers of attorney and the general powers of attorney, upon their first use, will be submitted at the Company's headquarters or will be transmitted to the Company to be registered at the Company's registration office with at least 2 (two) working days prior to the date of the meeting at its first convening, in accordance with the requirements of applicable legal provisions (including applicable capital market laws and regulations).

Art.12.2. After ascertaining that the requirements imposed by the law and by the articles of association in relation to the holding of general meetings have been met, each item on the agenda will be subject to deliberations and will be put to vote.

Art.12.3. The right to vote cannot be transferred. The resolutions of general meetings are taken by open vote. The secret vote is mandatory for the appointment or removal of the members of the board of directors, for the appointment, removal of financial auditors and for adopting resolutions regarding the liability of the company's administrative, management and control bodies.

Art.12.4. The resolutions adopted by the general meeting of shareholders in accordance with the law and the articles of association are binding even upon the shareholders who did not attend the meeting or voted against, under the conditions laid down by Companies Law 31/1990, republished, as subsequently amended and supplemented.

Art.12.5. In order to be binding upon third parties, the resolutions of the general meeting must be submitted to the National Trade Registry Office within fifteen (15) days from the date of the general meeting of shareholders and will be published in the Official Gazette.
